

Snyder Named Regional VP of IBA Consultants

John Snyder has been named regional vice president of IBA Consultants Inc., a firm specializing in curtain-wall consulting, inspection and testing.

Snyder will oversee the launch of the New York office and the expansion of IBA services in the northeast region including New York, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Washington and Boston. He will manage the budgets, sale activities and day-to-day operations of new office.

Snyder brings more than 22 years of experience with exterior window and wall systems to IBA, including custom designed window-walls, ballistic and bomb resistant fenestration, and hurricane resistant systems. His expertise includes specification and detail preparation, mock-up and field-testing, as well as all aspects of fenestration design, manufacture and installation.

"We are pleased to announce that Jonathan will join our team of experts at IBA Consultants," said Mark Baker, president of IBA Consultants. "With the addition of Jonathan, we can ensure a successful expansion into the northeast market."
